About

Maarten Draye specializes in complex litigation and arbitration. A member of the Brussels Bar, Maarten advises and represents clients in a wide range of fields and industries before arbitral tribunals and state courts, including in arbitration-related litigation. He has experience as presiding, sole and co-arbitrator as well as emergency arbitrator.

Maarten has been involved in over 70 arbitrations governed by various procedural and substantive laws under a variety of arbitration rules (ICC, LCIA, UNCITRAL, ICSID, SCC, Swiss, CEPANI, CRCICA, DIS, NAI, SIAC, Hamburg CC and OHADA) as well as ad hoc.

Since 2017, Maarten Draye has been recognized with praise by peers and clients in WWL (now Lexology) and other reputable ranking platforms, such as GAR, Leaders League, and Legal500. Clients and peers refer to him as a “brilliant advocate and arbitrator” who is “one of Belgium’s best arbitration practitioners” (WWL 2022) and recommend him for “his sharp legal mind, his pragmatic approach, his responsiveness and his punchy written submissions” (GAR, 2019).
